OBLIVION ALLSTARS ATHLETE CODE OF CONDUCT 2021-2022

Oblivion Allstars expect a high standard of behaviour in order to create an atmosphere in which athletes can develop teamwork, self esteem, health and fitness, discipline, friendship and respect. We urge that the following rules and regulations are taken very seriously into consideration before signing up for our program and that each athlete is fully aware of the standards of behaviour and expectations our program entails.

As a member and athlete of Oblivion Allstars I am agreeing to abide by the following:

- I understand that my actions both inside and outside of training are a reflection of Oblivion Allstars and I should reflect good behaviour.
- I will not use inappropriate language and partake in inappropriate activities.
- We will not tolerate poor, rude or derogatory language or aggression towards any of our staff, coaches, Team Mum's or other athletes. Any breach of the above may result in removal of you and your child from our programme. This includes not only face to face but on social networking sites, text and telephone.
- Each athlete that competes with Oblivion Allstars is obligated to compete and train only with Oblivion Allstars for that season and no other programme.
- If for any reason an athlete cannot complete the full season no money will be refunded. This is due to payments already being made to the event producers well in advanced.
- I will not wear any jewellery or watches when training due to safety reasons and I will dress appropriately when training and competing with Oblivion Allstars.
- I confirm that I will wear my training kit for all team training sessions and when required to do so.
- All Oblivion Allstars athletes must be wearing OA apparel at competitions.
- I will attend all sessions with a positive attitude in a hope that my positivity reflects upon others helping us to achieve our team and personal goals.
- I will be sure to follow all instructions given by the coaching staff.
- I understand that my team depend on me to be committed as an athlete and I will not purposely let the team down in any way.
- I will commit to work with any athlete and coach and pay them all the same level of respect.
- I will always demonstrate a high level of sportsmanship and ensure I am a grateful winner and a gracious loser.
- I will not say negative comments regarding other teams at Oblivion Allstars training sessions and at competitions.
- The Oblivion Allstars logo and name cannot be used or printed on any apparel or accessories etc I understand that all music and choreography are the property of Oblivion Allstars and I will not use them for any other purposes including talent shows, social networking sites, personal web pages and internet video sites such as YouTube.
- I as an athlete at Oblivion Allstars will ensure to pay all fee's in full and on time and failure to do so will incur a 10% late fee or removal from the programme. I understand that by breaking any of rules and regulations outlined in this code of conduct I may receive suspension or immediate dismissal from Oblivion Allstars.
